石原のような人間には打つ手がありません。猫達も石原宅へ行く都度変わっております。

安易な同情で寄付行為をすることはこのような犯罪を助長することでもあります。一般の心ある人達にお願いします。お金ではなく保護をして下さい。保護出来ないのであれば犬や猫にエサを寄付して下さい。一人一人の努力で虐待者を許さない社会にしていきましょう。

「街頭カンパで100万円」

July 12th: A group of 12 people distributed flyers about Ishihara's activities and urged passers-by not to give him money. While we did this, Ishihara continued to solicit contributions. After this, we went to the police numerous times asking them to put a stop to his activities but they insisted there was nothing they could do.

We got 'Josei Seven' magazine to cover the story in their October 13 issue but Ishihara continued with his abuse.

End of October: Dalmatian #4 rescued.

Early November: Dalmatian #5 missing, presumed dead, killed by Ishihara.

Mid-November: Dalmatian #6 missing presumed dead, killed by Ishihara. Dalmatians #7 and #8 confirmed to have been at Ishihara's house for the previous 2 months.

November 25th: Dalmatian #8 rescued with front leg cut off so that Ishihara could solicit donations for its treatment. Dalmatian #7 missing. We asked a lawyer to file a suit.

Early December: Dalmatian #9 rescued. Like #2 in February , skin torn off backs of feet, belly, chin, legs. Dalmatian #10 rescued one week later.

Late December: Police searched Ishihara's house and took him to the police station for questioning. . Papers regarding the case are sent to the Public Prosecutor's Office. The story is covered by major TV stations and newspapers and even a newspaper in Los Angeles. However, even after being directly questioned by the police, Ishihara resumed his activities with a 7 month-old Beagle.

The beagle was rescued on January 4th.

Giving money out of pity is to aid and abet this crime. If you pity the dogs, don't give their tormentor money; rescue them. We can't allow people like this to exist in our midst. Let's all join hands to rid society of Ishihara and his ilk.
