

Oliver-san,

It has taken much longer than I expected. It's now one o'clock in the morning. Here is "(strongly idealized) CHOBI SENSEI". I'll write down some notice.

1. Why not like this? I think it would be aesthetically better...

CHOBISENSEI

Most people think we're just a noisy nuisance.

But actually

our emotions aren't much different from humans.

I wonder how many people really understand this.

2. The 'screentone' will peel off. Please be careful until you get it printed. ↗

If you would correct that b—y stuff, I would be very grateful. If it reaches me 14th Nov. (Monday) or some time in the morning of 15th (Tuesday), I can manage to hand in. Very sorry for being imposing on you and please convey my 'sorry' to Junckit

See you!
