

the strong attack the weak, The death toll there is around 50-

60/month either as a result of dog fights or disease, as he doesn't vaccinate them or neuter them. Many are starving and others die of stress as he carts them round the country in buses to raise money in publicity stunts. This is yet another case we must begin to work on. as you can see as we deal with one another comes out.

5. It has been extremely hot this summer , around 35o C with high humidity. Now it's beginning to cool off. Second question already answered.

6.This evening in Nikkei shimbun, (Japan's Financial times or Wall Street Journal), there is a write-up about Tenri which I instigated. I'm working as a teacher at the newspaper and have several contacts there. When I first told them in June about Tenri they didn't express a lot of interest. Now that's it's become a subject of international concern they are interested.

Sorry this has become slightly long-winded but in order to answer your questions I had to fill you in a bit on the background of animal welfare in Japan. Of course there's a lot more I could tell with more time.

Thank you for all your efforts on behalf of Japanese animals. some more photos are on their way.

With bestwishes,

Elizabeth Oliver