

Not Again!

Oh no!

Thank God for Chobi-sensei!

If only everyone could be like him.

Most people think we're ijust a noisy nuisance.

· But actually

our emotions aren't much different from humans.

I wonder how many people really understand this.

But I do want to marry you, really. It's just that our backgrounds are so different.

You mongrels are all the same - SCRAM!

But we're all equal, aren't we?

In many ways dogs are more civilized than humans.

What a beautiful morning.

Oh you're back again!
