

From the Asahi Shimbun 2/24

□ to keep so astray dogs.

I've met a English woman, devotes to a dog's protection, through ^{an} article of "give you puppy" on an information paper.

^{living} Living with dogs ^(Toyono-gun in Osaka) she has been searching new ^{astray} keeper of them with volunteers.

I highly respect her because she has spirit of England where is the home of animal welfare.

« from a person concerned »

She is Ms. Elizabeth Oliver who is a lecturer at Osaka industrial uni.

She has been active with the number of Japan Animal Welfare and taking ^{care} of so dogs.

She says "Please stop to keep dogs irresponsibly and take good care of their life."