'HOPPING MADNESS' 9 minutes

The video contains evidence of the way frogs are caught and killed to satisfy the jaded appetites of the gourmets in the West. When a person has seen this, he is left in no doubt that buying frogs' legs supports a cruel trade as well as putting his own health at risk.

This video should be shown in every town and village in the country.

'SCREAMING FOR CHANGE' 9 minutes

Now that the veal crate is to be banned in UK we must turn our attention to the sow stall. - This video shows the cruelty and horror of the system and depicts the reaction of the young breeding gilt when first chained in her stall.

Farming experts present the overwhelming case for humane alternatives, and a call is made for legislation to ban close confinement systems.

These videos are available from CIWF for purchase or hire. Send a cheque for £12.50 for each video required. You can then keep it, or return it within 21 days for a refund of £10.
