

This is the poster which Crafts re

Evidence for dog re is moun We n your suppl

There are now 500,000 stray dogs suffering on the streets of Britain.

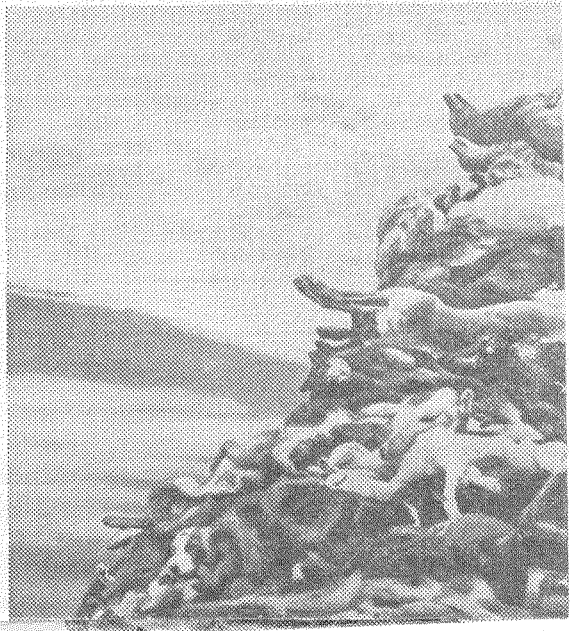

They get injured and killed on our roads.

They foul our pavements and parks. They attack people and livestock.

The chaos they cause costs Britain £70 million a year.

Yet we can hardly blame the dogs.

Because there's no dog registration scheme in Britain, there's no way of identifying the dogs or returning

However, Britain's leading