

JD 7/1/94

Pensioner leaves £60,000 for dogs

LONDON (Reuter) A British pensioner left £60,000 ($90,000) to a dogs' home saying it should buy them turkey dinners for Christmas.

Leslie Davis bequeathed half his will to Birmingham Dogs' Home in memory of his wife and his love of dogs.

The home's manager, John Goodhead, said he was delighted. "Long may the dogs continue to have their turkey dinners because dogs deserve their treats at Christmas," he said.