Dear Humane Societies,

The Korea's newly formed anti-cruelty law is actually a body of laws to promote and to officially bless the practice of cruelty. In essence what the law promises is that any con man, as long as he could come up with the legitimate sounding sophistry, he will, by law (!!!), will be exonerated.

Instead of championing the LOVE and MERCY , those old-Korean-senile-lawmakers are providing the arena for the cheap games of sophistry.

They value the strutting of human ego more than the Universal Principle.

Stupid old fools !! Stupid because they still don't understand the dire necessity of anti-cruelty laws for their miserable society.

In Japan, their anti-cruelty laws, in practice, do not provide any corrective measures or the punishments for the Animal Torturers.

Like their Korean cousins, these dimwits still have not grasped the spirit and the glory of Anti-Cruelty Laws.....to them it is nothing but a big joke.

Clearly, it is error to think of Japanese lawmakers as group of " MEN " with the matured sense of wisdom, LOVE , prescience, and the august visions.

Using all the known definitions and the standards, the accuracy dictates that they should be understood as " B0Ys "irresponsible, self-centered, myopic, sophomoric, incredibly selfish, insensitive, merciless B-0-Y-s .

The Japan's Finance Minister, Tsutomu Hata wants Japan to become a global leader.
What kind of global leader ??

My guess is that Mr.Tsutomu and his kinds intend to take away the rights of minorities, crush the women's rights, and wipe-out the anti-cruelty laws from the civilised societies.

The hubris he has substance he doesn't have
