

So, Dear Friends, our first step is to call for the revisions of the Korean and the Japanese anti-cruelty laws.

If their officials don't comply, then we must get ready for another round of massive press releases, and the international call for the boycotting of Korean and the Japanese products & their tourist businesses.

Moreover, it should be remembered that the reason why the anti-cruelty laws of Japan and Korea are so hokey and inept is because their lawmakers are primarily composed of male gender. This problem is compounded due to the fact that they seem to be outright incompetent, hopelessly dumb, and poorly trained in law Lil' O' Abner could have written better laws.

Personally, I strongly suspect that the Korean and the Japanese lawmakers are the dregs of their society and these Asian hillbillies are all trained at some boon-dock schools, in some hick-town Siberia. This is pitiful situation unmitigated old fools on one hand and the pre-pubescent BOYS with the soprano voices on the other.

The answer is,..... weed out most of the male lawmakers and replace them with the competent female lawyers.

Meanwhile, please take the above mentioned four groups into your hearts and start exchanging your campaign letters and the letters of admiration for each other. Critiques and the hateletters are welcomed too.
