

Pit bulls shot

Three pit bull terriers were shot by police marksmen during a drugs raid on a house. One dog was killed and two others were wounded, Hertfordshire police said. The dogs attacked officers as they searched for drugs and firearms at a home in Apsley, Hemel Hempstead, Hertfordshire. Both injured dogs received treatment from a vet. Six people were arrested and various substances removed for examination. Police said one man was charged with supplying drugs.

More news

Hesmen 15/9/91