Diane,

Following please find a copy of the fax I sent to Evie, my travel agent. She now knows that you will be calling her.

Also with this fax is a letter to Northwest Airlines. Apparently they want to to show them this letter (they may even take it from you at the airport) to make sure you are indeed a disaster volunteer.

I am sorry I am going to miss you, but perhaps we'll meet some other time. I am glad you are coming because Elizabeth needs you!!

Best regards,

[REDACTED]
J. Allen
