Dear [REDACTED]

I wanted to respond to your FAX that I received on February 10. REI has donated to the people of Kobe many tents, sleeping bags, fleece garments and more gear. The retail value of this equipment has exceeded $10,000.

REI's Japan Service Desk (JSD) which is located just outside of Tokyo committed this gear the morning after the quake. The gear was delivered through a respected newspaper reporter who lives in the stricken area, and who arranged the delivery of the much-needed gear through a distribution center in Osaka, near the quake's epicenter.

If you would like to purchase any REI gear at a commercial discount, we can further help you in your efforts. You may call Commercial Sales at 1-800-258-4567.

Thank you for thinking of REI, and good luck in your efforts.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
